What can we expect for Kate in the next coming months?

She is going to be using her intuition her natural gifts, her insights and empathy to help children with special needs. She has a talent and a natural wisdom to tune into complicated situations. There is sadness and grief on a personal matter but as quickly as that comes there is also joy and emotional fulfilment. A little bit of fluctuation of emotions and tension will be evident between May and August. There is love of another that will mean so much to her beyond words and a willingness to share and express this out into the open. She will have a genuine desire to go beyond anything that she has ever felt before.

Mind, Body & Soul: The star cosmic card

The words to describe her mind body and soul is fortitude, openness, beauty, gratitude and the energy that is with her at this current time is harmony. She has the ability within her aura to triumph and concur even more extreme goals. I can see a book with intimate details written about her on how she feels being a woman, a mother, a wife, a career woman. Her spiritual needs are very simple and down to earth; she will become more connected to the divine and nature.

What can we expect for romance?

With the work expectations and the high standards that she creates for herself this will be quite a test, delays and problems to practical solutions in as far as planning to have more time with children can be a conflict. Her current partner is her soul mate but soul mates can also go through testing times. This will be a journey of self discovery for both of them.

I do see celebrations and too much of a good thing can get in the way of all that is well.
